High Hopes is a nationally recognized 501(c)(3) nonprofit, charitable organization dedicated to helping the brain injured reclaim their lives. High Hopes was the first private nonprofit organization formed in the country to exclusively serve the needs of brain-injured individuals and their families. Since our inception in 1975, we continue to provide one-of-a-kind services with the results far above expectation.

High Hopes provides a full service, day treatment program. The program utilizes a unique method of rehabilitation, which has been developed over 43 years of service. High Hopes has helped hundreds of brain-injured adults recover abilities that were thought unattainable. We do not give up on anyone, but rather find solutions to help each person regain their life.
